

HAPPENINGS AT THE MET

AUTUMN 2020

We Have Missed You

How could we have known back in March that St. Patrick's Day was the last time we would see many of you for months? On multiple occasions we got our hopes up and tried to schedule events, only to cancel or postpone due to Covid regulations. We tried to keep our heads up as we watched theaters from Tuolumne to Broadway cancel their entire seasons. Our rehearsals started for Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and Beauty and the Bloodshed, both of which have now been rescheduled for 2021. The decision to cancel and postpone events has been very difficult. Boxes of postcards, flyers, and posters have literally gone straight into the recycling bin.

One thing that has helped keep us afloat are our Friday night take-out dinners. So many of our faithful friends have driven through our back parking lot every Friday for the past 8 months to pick up their hot, fresh meals. For this, we are so grateful!

We continue to be optimistic about our upcoming season. It is our hope to kick things off with a stellar New Years Eve celebration and meet 2021 with both feet on the ground.

Thank you all for your continued support. We hope to see you soon!

What an honor and a surprise it was when the Ledger Dispatch informed us that we were voted Best Entertainment in Calaveras County!

New Years Eve Dinner Show

A very special dinner theater performance of the classic, Dinner For One, followed by live entertainment by Mindy Lancaster to ring in the new year!

Dinner for One is a short comedy that takes place on the ninetieth birthday of upper-class Englishwoman Miss Sophie. She hosts a dinner every year for her friends, all of whom she has outlived, but continues the annual tradition, believing her friends are alive and seated round the table. Her aged manservant, James, reluctantly aids the tradition by impersonating each guest while serving a 4-course meal, and drinking for every toast!

You will be treated to the same 4-course meal and wine pairings as Miss Sophie. It's sure to be a night to remember. 1920's costumes are encouraged!

Fourth Wall Entertainment Troupe's vision to provide interactive theatrical experiences by providing quality entertainment through drama, dance, music, comedy and culture. Friday Take-Out Dinners at the Met

While we are anxiously waiting to get back on stage, we've kept busy with Friday night dinners at the Met. Call or check us out on Facebook to see what's for dinner this week! Don't forget to RSVP so Chef Brian prepares enough food!

Pandora's Pastries

Operating Out of Met Kitchen

Pandora's Pastries has begun operating out of our kitchen at the Metropolitan. Dessert options at our Friday night take-out dinners have been provided by their bakers. Pandora's Pastries offers creative cakes, cookies, cupcakes and more! They are happy to provide wedding, birthday, and holiday treats to order. For more information check them out on Facebook, or call 209-754-5555.

Meet Our Staff: Chef Brian Krantz

Back in the mid seventies Baby Cyndie and Baby Brian played together in the church nursery. They started elementary school, walked arm in arm at 8th grade commencement ceremony, and worked at the same summer camp in high school.

Brian moved away as so many CHS graduates do. 30 years passed with their paths crossing rarely, if ever. Then last year, Brian came home to San Andreas! When Covid hit our little business, Brian stepped up to help and has been cooking our Friday night meals for the past 4 months. His talent as a chef is extraordinary, and his loyalty as a friend is even better!

It's good to have you back, Brian!
